Last updated: 11 July 2019

These Terms and Conditions apply to all visitors, users, contributors, authors and others who access or use the MIMU Website and associated MIMU products and services for any reason.

By accessing or using the MIMU Website, you agree to be bound by the following Terms and Conditions.

1. Role of the MIMU

- 1.1 The Myanmar Information Management Unit / MIMU is a service of the Office of the United Nations Resident and Humanitarian Coordinator to support the information management needs and decision-making of humanitarian, development and peace-focused actors across Myanmar. MIMU activities are currently supported by the Government of Canada.
- 1.2 MIMU safeguards the common data and information repository for development, humanitarian and peace-focused actors in Myanmar through gathering and compiling data from various sources on relevant sectors, countrywide, and making this information accessible to the wider group of stakeholders.
- 1.3 As such the MIMU provides easy access to data, reports and other products compiled and generated by the MIMU itself as well as those compiled by a wide variety of other stakeholders, including the Myanmar Government, United Nations agencies, local and international non-governmental organisations, Red Cross agencies, Donors, and the academic sector.

2. General provisions

- 2.1 The MIMU reserves the right to deny in its sole discretion any User access to this website or any portion thereof without notice.
- 2.2 No waiver by the MIMU of any provision of these Terms and Conditions shall be binding except as set forth in writing and signed by its duly authorized representative. The MIMU reserves its exclusive right in its sole discretion to alter, limit or discontinue the MIMU website or any Materials in any respect.
- 2.3 The MIMU shall have no obligation to take the needs of any User into consideration in connection therewith. If the User is dissatisfied with any Material on this website or with any of its Terms and Conditions of Use, the User's sole and exclusive remedy is to discontinue using the Space. Nothing herein shall constitute or be considered to be a limitation upon or a waiver of the privileges and immunities of the United Nations, which are specifically reserved.

3. Terms of Use of MIMU products

- 3.1 All MIMU products and those of other development, humanitarian and peace-focused actors shared through the MIMU's website are available free of charge and cannot be sold or used for commercial purposes.

- 3.2 Users may copy, freely duplicate and further distribute these products and datasets provided that MIMU (or the original author where relevant) is clearly cited as the reference and that copies of the material are not sold.

4. Acknowledgement of the MIMU and its sources

- 4.1 The MIMU seeks to ensure that all authors and sources of any materials contained in, or referred to, in the MIMU website, products and applications are duly acknowledged based on the information made available in the materials themselves.
- 4.2 All Users of this website and its applications undertake to acknowledge the MIMU and all content sources when using and/or reproducing information obtained from the MIMU website, products and applications.
- 4.3 Users will not delete any author attributions, legal notices or proprietary designations or labels in any file that is uploaded, or falsify the origin or source of software or other material contained in a file that is provided to, or taken from, this website.

5. User Agreement

- 5.1 Users of the MIMU website and products, including MIMU provided datasets, commit not to use these products or datasets or the information contained therein to advertise or offer to sell any goods or services, or conduct or forward surveys, contests or chain letters, or download any file posted by another User of a Forum that the User knows, or reasonably should know, cannot be legally distributed in such manner.
- 5.2 Any entity or individual submitting Materials for publication through the MIMU is hereby deemed to accept these Terms and Conditions unless written notice requesting withdrawal of the materials has been received by the MIMU. Entities or individuals with a claim of authorship or copyright on any such Materials can request withdrawal of their materials at any time by submitting a written request to info@themimu.info but may not opt out of these binding Terms and Conditions.

Personal details obtained in this registration process are used only within the MIMU and for this designated purpose and are not published, licensed or disclosed to third parties. The MIMU, however, assumes no responsibility for the security of this information. MIMU reserves the right to remove, reclaim, or change a username you select if we determine, in our sole discretion, that such username is inappropriate, obscene, or otherwise objectionable.
- 6.3 Certain MIMU products include the possibility for “restricted” information sharing whereby it shares only part of the information provided by User/relevant agency publicly. The MIMU treats such restricted information with full confidentiality and will share it only as agreed with the User prior to use.
